

JUSTICE (and humor) FOR ALL
(A monthly humor letter) August 1997

This humor letter contains both clean original humor as well as clean bits of humor that have found their way to me via Email. Many times the original author is unknown so if you read something here that you find very funny it's OK to assume that I wrote it. You have my permission to reproduce and distribute any items you'd like as well as the entire humor letter just so long as you are doing it for free and not for profit.- Enjoy!

Say What

If at first you don't succeed, skydiving is not for you.
It has recently been discovered that research causes cancer in rats.
It may be that your sole purpose in life is simply to serve as a warning to others.
The trouble with life is that you are halfway through it before you realize it's a "do it yourself" thing.
If only the good die young then what does that say about senior citizens?
Employ teenagers while they still know everything.

Humor and Training Tip #12

Analogies are a great low risk vehicle for driving your point home. For example,
"Checking up on a person after delegating authority to them is like pulling a plant out of the ground to see how the roots are doing."
Use them sparingly but do use them.

Humor Tip #11

Kids are naturally up. As we get older and take ourselves and life too seriously we grow down. Using humor to see the lighter side of life can help you "grow up".

Ad-Libs for Speakers and Trainers

When someone's beeper goes off say,
"Stand back! I think he's/she's gonna blow!"
or
"Are you ready to beam up?"
or
"The ones who have 'em on vibrate are just smiling!"
or
"Where I live people can't afford beepers, so they wear their garage door openers to look cool."
