

JUSTICE (and humor) FOR ALL

(A monthly humorletter) December 2001

This humorletter contains both clean original humor as well as clean bits of humor that have found their way to me via Email. Many times the original author is unknown so if you read something here that you find very funny it's OK to assume that I wrote it.

You have my permission to reproduce and distribute any items you'd like as well as the entire humor letter just so long as you are doing it for free and not for profit.- Enjoy!

Let's Start The New Year With a Laugh!

After the year we've had I thought that we could all use a lot of laughs to get us off to a great start. Though you may not learn anything in this issue hopefully you will find something to get you to laugh out loud.

I hope this year is one filled with joy and laughter for you and your family.

Classic Carlin

If it's true that we are here to help others, then what exactly are the others here for?

Why do they put pictures of criminals up in the Post Office? What are we supposed to do, write to them? Why don't they just put their pictures on the postage stamps so the mailmen could look for them while they delivered the mail?

Do Lipton Tea employees take coffee breaks?

I thought about how mothers feed their babies with tiny little spoons and forks so I wondered, "What do Chinese mothers use? Toothpicks?"

More Daffynitions

The Washington Post asked readers to take any word from the dictionary... alter it by adding, subtracting, or changing one letter... and supply a new definition!

Reintarnation: Coming back to life as a hillbilly.

Sarchasm: The gulf between the author of sarcastic wit and the person who doesn't get it.

Intaxication: Euphoria at getting a tax refund, which lasts until you realize it was your money to start with.

Karmageddon: It's like, when everybody is sending off all these really bad vibes, right? And then, like, the Earth explodes, and it's like a serious bummer.

Glibido: All talk and no action.

Dopeler effect: The tendency of stupid ideas to seem smarter when they come at you rapidly.

Actual Hospital Reports

The patient has been depressed since she began seeing me in 1993.

Discharge status: Alive, but without my permission.

Healthy appearing decrepit 69-year-old male, mentally alert but forgetful.

While in ER, she was examined, X-rated and sent home.

The patient refused autopsy.

She stated that she had been constipated for most of her life, until she got a divorce.

"How to Ad Lib Like a Professional (or just look like one)"

The sales have been great and reviews are even better!
