

JUSTICE (and humor) FOR ALL

(A monthly humorletter) July 1999

This humorletter contains both clean original humor as well as clean bits of humor that have found their way to me via Email. Many times the original author is unknown so if you read something here that you find very funny it's OK to assume that I wrote it.

You have my permission to reproduce and distribute any items you'd like as well as the entire humor letter just so long as you are doing it for free and not for profit.- Enjoy!

Actual Signs

- In the front yard of a funeral home, "Drive carefully, we'll wait."
- On an electrician's truck, "Let us remove your shorts."
- On a maternity room door, "Push, Push, Push."
- On a front door, "Everyone on the premises is a vegetarian except the dog."
- At an optometrist's office, "If you don't see what you're looking for, you've come to the right place."
- In a veterinarian's waiting room, "Be back in 5 minutes. Sit! Stay!"

Humor and Training Tip #28

If you reproduce a cartoon in any manner for a presentation you need to get a release from the syndicate that owns it. Usually they will allow it as long as you are not putting it on a t-shirt or other item to sell.

You can use just the caption with no legal hassles. Since I don't possess the best grammatical skills, I tell my audience my favorite cartoon is a Far Side of Thomas Jefferson looking up while writing the Constitution and saying, " Is it we the people or us the people?" This way I get the laugh from the cartoon without risking the legal.

Humor Tip #27

Having trouble getting your foot in the door or past the gatekeeper of a prospect? One of my clients used to put on a costume around Halloween and march past even the toughest receptionist. Now she does it year round!

She says there's always a holiday you can tie it to and who's going to stop a giant rabbit or the Statue of Liberty?

Tips From Mega Networking #4

The "Rule of 250" states that everyone knows at least 250 people. If you're thinking that you don't, think again. Think of not only friends but, workmates, PTA, Little League parents, those who attend your house of worship, the dry cleaners, mechanic and the list goes on.

Theoretically when you network with one person you are networking with their "250" that's why it's so important for people to understand what you do so they will know who's a good prospect for you.

For the Southerners

For your next meeting put a little "South in their mouths". More and more corporations are buying my wife Diane's "Grits Bits" as a fun gourmet southern treat for baskets, table snacks and room gifts.

For price information and ordering please call Diane at: 404-261-2197 or visit her website at:www.strawberrypatch.net
