

JUSTICE (and humor) FOR ALL

(A monthly humorletter) March 1997

This humorletter contains both clean original humor as well as clean bits of humor that have found their way to me via Email. Many times the original author is unknown so if you read something here that you find very funny it's OK to assume that I wrote it.

You have my permission to reproduce and distribute any items you'd like as well as the entire humor letter just so long as you are doing it for free and not for profit.- Enjoy!

Humor and Training Tip #7

Know your audience. There's a big difference between the humor that works with a group of managers and hourly wage employees or engineers and office workers. Understanding the humor that works for these different groups can mean the difference between success and failure.

Humor Tip #6

The safest and most effective type of humor is the type that pokes fun at yourself. It helps to bond you with your audience and they will perceive you as someone who is very confident and sure of themselves. It also helps you to take yourself lightly which reduces your stress level.

Kids on Love

ON WHAT FALLING IN LOVE IS LIKE

"Like an avalanche where you have to run for your life." (Roger, 9)

"If falling in love is anything like learning how to spell, I don't want to do it. It takes too long."
(Leo, 7)

ON THE ROLE OF GOOD LOOKS IN LOVE

"If you want to be loved by somebody who isn't already in your family, it doesn't hurt to be beautiful."

(Jeanne, 8)

"I'm not rushing into being in love. I'm finding fourth grade hard enough."

(Regina, 10)

WHEN IS IT OKAY TO KISS SOMEONE?

"It's never okay to kiss a boy. They always slobber all over you...That's why I stopped doing it."

(Jean, 10)
