

JUSTICE (and humor) FOR ALL

(A monthly humorletter) November 1996

This humorletter contains both clean original humor as well as clean bits of humor that have found their way to me via Email. Many times the original author is unknown so if you read something here that you find very funny it's OK to assume that I wrote it.

You have my permission to reproduce and distribute any items you'd like as well as the entire humor letter just so long as you are doing it for free and not for profit.- Enjoy!

A Good Clean Joke!

A burglar breaks in a house and is about to steal a computer when he hears a voice say, "Jesus is watching you".

He looks around to see who said it but all he sees is a parrot.

He asks the parrot, "Did you say that"?

The parrot says, "Yes!"

The burglar says, "That's pretty good. What's your name?"

The parrot says, "Homer."

The Burglar says, "What kind of idiot would name a parrot Homer"?

The parrot says, "The same kind of idiot that would name a Doberman 'Jesus'!"

Humor and Training Tip #4

When speaking to a group never announce a joke. First, this causes you to lose the element of surprise. Second, when you say, "I heard a really good joke", you set a level of expectation that's very hard if not impossible to reach.

Humor Tip #3

Look for the humor in negative situations. Usually when things go wrong you find yourself weeks later telling the story and laughing. My theory is, why wait? Laugh when it's happening. That's when you need it most.
