

JUSTICE (and humor) FOR ALL
(A monthly humor letter) October 1997

This humor letter contains both clean original humor as well as clean bits of humor that have found their way to me via Email. Many times the original author is unknown so if you read something here that you find very funny it's OK to assume that I wrote it. You have my permission to reproduce and distribute any items you'd like as well as the entire humor letter just so long as you are doing it for free and not for profit.- Enjoy! For permission to use any parts of this humorletter in company newsletters please contact Jeff at: jeff2jeffjustice.com. Please feel free to download it to others or cut it up and post it on the bulletin board.- Enjoy!

More Bumper Snickers

"Always remember you're unique, just like everyone else."
"Lottery: A tax on people who are bad at math."
"Why is 'abbreviation' such a long word?"
"We are Microsoft. Resistance Is Futile. You Will Be Assimilated."
"Change is inevitable, except from a vending machine."
"Give me ambiguity or give me something else."
"Laugh alone and the world thinks you're an idiot."
"Happiness is a state of mine."

Humor and Training Tip #14

Don't forget the power of reward. Bob Pike hands out raw potatoes to participants who volunteer or answer questions. Within minutes of the first potato awarded, everyone is falling over themselves to win one. I give tapes, books and funny eyeballs. The audience loves it and I get the participation I desire. What can you give out?

Humor Tip #13

Humor defuses anger. Even as a child I knew that if I did something funny in class and the teacher laughed, I wouldn't get in trouble. Of course if she didn't laugh, I had a chance to rehearse it and try it on the principal. It got to the point I was doing two shows a day! Even appropriate humor should only be used at the "appropriate" time.

Ad-Libs for Speakers and Trainers

When you run out of time, say
I'm going to keep my comments brief because I believe in getting right to the point and my baby-sitter has to be home by ten.
-Speaker's Idea File, May 1993

An Opening
Last night I tried to eliminate anything in my speech that seemed in any way dull. So in conclusion
